Support

On behalf of the Eastern Wyoming College Foundation, we are delighted to present our Annual Report for the 2024–2025 fiscal year. Guided by our vision—that Eastern Wyoming College and its students flourish—this year has been marked by growth, opportunity, and impact made possible through your generosity.

Together, we advanced our mission to expand access to higher education and enhance academics, athletics, campus culture, and the communities we serve. In FY25, we awarded more than $562,000 in scholarships to 210 students and provided $356,065 to strengthen vital programs and initiatives. These investments are transforming student lives and reinforcing EWC's role as a regional leader in education and workforce training.

Looking ahead, the Foundation is partnering with the College to pursue bold capital campaign goals. We are working to raise $1 million to complete the Douglas campus expansion for a new Construction Technology Facility and embarking on an $8-10 million campaign for rodeo and livestock facilities in Torrington. These projects will open doors for students, expand workforce training, and strengthen the communities we serve.

Thank you for your generous support.

Recognition

Cayle Carpenter and Todd Peterson

2025 Distinguished Alumnus Award

This award is given for exemplary achievement in one's profession, academic activities, and in community and civic service. Cayle Carpenter of Casper attended EWC from 2011–2013, where he earned an Associate of Applied Science degree, played on the Lancer golf team, and achieved Phi Theta Kappa honors. To help cover expenses, he worked on a ranch, an experience that sparked a career in entrepreneurship. Today, he owns multiple businesses nationwide. Grateful for their EWC experience, Cayle and his wife Shayna actively support their community and the EWC golf program.

2025 Albert C. Conger Distinguished Service Award

The Albert C. Conger Distinguished Service Award, named for the College's first president, honors exemplary leadership, support, and achievement that have significantly enhanced Eastern Wyoming College and its students. This year, the EWC Foundation wishes to recognize a couple whose affiliation with Eastern Wyoming College goes back almost fifty years, Rick and Nancy Vonburg.

Nancy and Rick Vonburg

Rick Vonburg created, oversaw and instructed a very solid agriculture curriculum that prepared hundreds of students for continued studies at four year institutions. After retirement, Rick has remained very involved in the college serving on Ag Advisory Committees, the foundation board and board of trustees. Rick and his wife Nancy rarely miss any college function. Next to Guido Smith, Rick and Nancy's long term commitment to the college is unprecedented.

Memorial Gifts are a wonderful way of remembering loved ones. Gifts were made to the Foundation in memory of the individuals listed below. We are deeply grateful to the friends and families of these individuals for thinking of the Eastern Wyoming College Foundation in their time of sorrow.

Fundraising

Building the Future: Construction Technology Center

The new 9,000 sq. ft. Construction Technology Center in Douglas will give students the tools to succeed. With a total project cost of nearly $6 million, we've already secured nearly 87% through grants and local commitments. Any funds raised beyond construction will go directly toward equipment and educational resources for future Construction Technology students.

Lancer Rodeo: A Winning Tradition

With five world champions among its alumni, EWC's rodeo program has a proud tradition of excellence—and we're committed to keeping it strong. The Lancer Rodeo campaign is focused on growing the program by investing in modern horse boarding facilities, animal holding pens, and improved practice facilities. Supporting this campaign helps student-athletes carry forward the legacy of Lancer Rodeo for generations to come.
